

Recognizing signs of possible risk for psychosis*?

Call for a Free Clinical Consultation discuss differential diagnosis and evaluation options strategize for supporting students * connect to available resources

Common signs of risk for early psychosis (new or worsening):

- Drop in grades
- Trouble concentrating
- Decline in self-care
- Social withdrawal
- Unusual/intense ideas
- Suspiciousness
- New sensitivity to sounds
- Mistaking noises for voices
- Having strange or no feelings
- Your mind is “playing tricks” on you

Especially with close relative with mental illness or psychosis